Task 1 Engaging Performance Scenario, Unit 1 - Graphic Organizer

Engaging Scenario: Our school has lost a principal. You have been chosen to select a candidate to fill the position from the following individuals: Hammurabi, Alexander the Great, Pericles, Julius Caesar, Augustus Caesar, Plato, Socrates, Aristotle, Asoka and Shi Huang Di. You will research the candidate you select and give reasons you feel he/she is the right one for the position. You will then write a persuasive letter to the hiring committee recommending your candidate (Task 3).

Task 1 Student Directions: You will be given an individual to research from the following: Hammurabi, Alexander the Great, Pericles, Julius Caesar, Augustus Caesar, Plato, Socrates, Aristotle, Asoka and Shi Huang Di. Using the graphic organizer given to you, please research the personality, philosophy, social position, accomplishments, activities, and his impact on society. You may use any academic resource available to you (please do not use sources like Wikipedia). Students must utilize primary sources to complete internet-based research using the graphic organizer below in order to document information regarding the eligibility of their candidate for the principal position (On Course Website).
