Task 3, Unit 3 – Transatlantic Slave Trade Collage with Captions

Engaging Scenario: You are a part of a news broadcast team. Major events are occurring right before your eyes! Changes including: new technologies, the introduction of life changing foods and animals, people never seen before are an everyday sight, unfamiliar cultures and traditions are all around and new life-threatening diseases are ravishing communities! People back home are confused and want to know what is going on. You have been assigned to cover these events in great detail.

Task 3 Student Directions: Students will be asked to research and use visual primary resources to create a collage depicting the impact of the Atlantic Slave Trade in Africa and the Americas. You will create a two-part collage illustrating the impact of the Trans-Atlantic Slave trade on the colonies in the America and the colonies in Africa. The collage should be split describing the impact of the trade in the colonies and the other half illustrating the impact of the Trade in Africa. Students should have at minimum 15 images with captions per region (Total= 30 Images with Captions). Captions should be at least one summarizing sentence describing the image. You may use images printed from the internet, or ones that are student created. Students need to use textbook pages 392-399 and can use the primary source website links that are available via the course website, mrcoachholmes.weebly.com.
