

2018 Green Revolution SAQ Scoring Activity

As we approach the end of the course and the exam, it is really important to understand what “gets the point” and what does not. Today you’ll engage in looking at some samples and score them. Do you believe they achieve the point? Why or why not? Then we will discuss as a class the College Board Rationale for the scores given, and you’ll jot down what you learned from that. Were you correct in your assumptions? Incorrect? Let’s find out!
