Topic 7.7 Conducting World War II

Learning Objective

Explain similarities and differences in how governments used a variety of methods to conduct war.

Historical Developments

World War II was a total war. Governments used a variety of strategies, including political propaganda, art, media, and intensified forms of nationalism, to mobilize populations (both in the home countries and the colonies or former colonies) for the purpose of waging war. Governments used ideologies, including fascism and communism to mobilize all of their state's resources for war and, in the case of totalitarian states, to repress basic freedoms and dominate many aspects of daily life during the course of the conflicts and beyond.

Western democracies mobilizing for war:

- Great Britain under Winston Churchill
- United States under Franklin Roosevelt

Totalitarian states mobilizing for war:

- Germany under Adolf Hitler
- USSR under Joseph Stalin

New military technology and new tactics, including the atomic bomb, fire-bombing, and the waging of "total war" led to increased levels of wartime casualties.

42. In what ways was WWII a total war?

43. Give examples of how fascist Germany under Hitler waged war during WWII. How did Germany mobilize their resources and populations?

44. Give examples of how the USSR under Stalin waged war during WWII. How did the USSR mobilize their resources and populations?

45. How did Great Britain mobilize for war under Winston Churchill?

46. How did the US mobilize for war under FDR?

		47. What new military technology/tactics were used during WWII that led to increased levels of wartime casualties? 48. How were government methods to wage war during WWII similar? 49. How did democratic governments' methods of waging war differ from methods utilized by totalitarian states?
