

DOCUMENT ANALYSIS & SUPPORTING AN ARGUMENT

DOCUMENT ANALYSIS:

- 1. Look at the document and what does it say (Put your finger on it. Look at all parts, including the source line.)
- 2. Look through the document (What does this mean?) and then summarize the document.

SUPPORTING AN ARGUMENT:

- 1. After completing the summary, start the next sentence with “This shows” or “This demonstrates” where you will use the language of the prompt to make your argument.

SOURCING:

- 1. Lastly, students will respond to why was this document written or produced.

